

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates. The cable ownership cap is a crucial element of our democratic media, and it should not be weakened.

There has been far too little coverage of issues affecting millions of Americans.

One has to rely on foreign news stations and the internet to get even a glimpse of realities. If further consolidation of cable ownership is permitted we will be reduced in our access to information and subjected to increased price gouging. Please don't allow this.
